

LA FRANCE DIVISÉE

This 36-min. documentary film explores the two sides of France during World War II: the collaboration with the Vichy government as well as the courage of many Righteous Gentiles and members of the Resistance. It also includes interviews with seven French people: a Holocaust survivor, three child survivors, two historians, and a leader of the French Resistance. Each interviewee presents a very different account of his/her experiences. The film concludes with actual footage of two historic apologies from the French government and Catholic Church. President Jacques Chirac publicly apologized for France's role in the deportation of Jews (1995), and Bishop Olivier de Berranger apologized for the silence of the French Catholic Church and asked for forgiveness (1997). Written, produced, and directed by Barbara P. Barnett and Eileen M. Angelini. Recommended for high school or college.
