

ACADEMIC CREDIT FOR THE 2019 CONVENTION

The AATF is pleased to offer 2019 Philadelphia Convention participants one-hour of graduate credit through the M.A.T. In-Service Program at Webster University in Saint Louis. The cost for one hour of graduate credit is $175. (This fee covers only the cost of credit; participants must still register for the convention.) Participants must preregister so that paperwork can be completed before the convention.

PRELIMINARY SYLLABUS

- Participants should register for and attend the entire conference beginning Sunday, July 14 at 9 a.m. and concluding on Wednesday, July 17 at noon.
- Participants must log a minimum of 15 hrs of attendance at sessions.

During the convention:

- Participants will attend the opening session on July 14.
- Participants may select from one of the following strands and attend related sessions scheduled throughout the convention or they may create their own theme-based plan (French and Francophone Cultures, Literature and Teaching Literature, Language Learning, Teaching Techniques, Language Policy and Promotion).

After the convention:

- Each participant will present a written summary of the conference which includes the following: (1) A summary and critique of each session attended; (2) A simulated letter to the editor of your local newspaper describing how this conference will impact your future work; and (3) An analysis outlining how you plan to implement the knowledge gained at the convention in your teaching.
- Submit all written work by September 15, 2019.

If you are interested in receiving one hour of graduate credit, please register using the registration form online or at [www.frenchteachers.org/convention]. The instructor for this course will be Brian Kennelly formerly of Webster University [bkennell@calpoly.edu].
